Mary has a wild imagination. By day she raises birds from extinction but at night she dreams of flight. The possibilities are endless. If she can dream it, then it can be – but imagination can be a dangerous thing.

Adriane Daff, Arielle Gray, Chris Isaacs and Tim Watts return to Sydney Festival to present their first new work since the internationally acclaimed It's Dark Outside. Blending puppetry, animation, music, performance and live-video, Falling Through Clouds is a wildly fun and playfully dark investigation into how dreams can get the better of us.

The fantastical and daring tale of dreaming is complimented by an original soundtrack from award-winning composer Ash Gibson Greig.

Falling Through Clouds explores the peculiar relationship between humans and animal instinct with a poignancy and tenderness that exemplifies the work of the innovative company so far.

The Last Great Hunt is a new independent theatre company formed by seven of Western Australia's best young theatre-makers, dedicated to creating original theatre in a variety of forms and styles.
